CASE NO. 1:07-CV-842-WKW

GREGORY S. SAMPLE,

*

Defendant

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

Comes now the Defendant, Gregory S. Sample, in the above styled cause and for answer to the Complaint for Declaratory Judgment heretofore filed in this cause, says as follows:

1. The Defendant, Gregory S. Sample, states that he only inquired regarding representation of personal liability after speaking with my local Cotton States agent.

2. The Defendant received a telephone call from Mr. Wayne A. Bolgla, Supervising Claims Attorney for the Plaintiff. He stated that he wasn't sure whether the policy in question would provide me coverage.

3. On July 6, 2007, I responded with the attached correspondence, listed as Exhibit "A", asking that Cotton States review my policy and contact me with regards to their decision.

4. The Defendant never received any correspondence or telephone calls after the submission of the above-listed Exhibit "A" until I was served with this Complaint.

5. The Defendant denies that he should be ordered to pay any costs to the Plaintiff in this matter.

Respectfully submitted this 7th day of October, 2007.

RE: Claim No: 315-434

Dear Mr. Bolgla:

At the present time it is my belief and understanding those claims in this suit against me personally would be covered by my policy. It is my hope that you would review the complaint in its entirety, which would be all that encompasses the four corners of the document.

Also, at this time I have yet gained any other documents that I might be able to submit. Once the discovery process takes place it is my hope that I gain the needed documents to solidify Cotton States help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Gregory S. Sample
